Dr. William Tong started something. His research uses lasers to detect disease; design and develop cleaner drugs; and identify pollutants and chemicals in our bodies and the environment. With a Defense Department grant, Tong is now developing a laser-based method of minimizing the damage from improvised explosive devices. To learn more, visit sdsu.edu/leadershipstartshere.