College of Education

For over 44 years, CBB has prepared culturally competent counselor/change agents who work with underserved individuals and communities. In 2014, the program transitioned to prepare multicultural community counselors to become Licensed Professional Clinical Counselors. Come to this session for more information about the program and how you can apply for the 2018-2020 learning community!

- Meet faculty, alumni and current students
- Learn about our multicultural partners-in-learning counselor preparation model that uses democratic decision-making to share power between faculty and students.
- Discuss admissions criteria
