WANT TO INCREASE YOUR OPTIONS FOR EMPLOYMENT?

SIGN UP FOR ARP 568
3 UNITS, CR/NC

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT & DISABILITY, SCHEDULE #30971
WED., 1:00 – 3:40 PM, NE 171
GRADS AND UNDERGRADS FROM ALL MAJORS WELCOME!

TIPS FOR CAREER PLANNING, INTERVIEWING & DISABILITY DISCLOSURE

Innovations Discussed & Practiced:
- A New Perspective on Disability for the Workplace
- Accommodation and Disability Disclosure Strategies
- Employment Disincentives
- Wealth & Asset Building
- Soft Skills (Self-Marketing Strategies)
- Workplace Culture & Rules of the Road
- Documenting your Technical Job Skills
- Interviewing Strategies & Practices
- Individual Career Exploration Strategies

Customized Features:
- Meet your own personal business mentor, advocate
- Identify possible internships through the Business Leadership Network

"The Professional Development and Disability curriculum provided me with a wealth of knowledge and skills geared towards my entry into the burgeoning workplace. I appreciate the time and care that our teacher took to show us the finer points of securing and sustaining employment." ~ Fall 2014 student

STUDENT TESTIMONIAL:

“I understood how to market myself to a potential employer . . . I learned the secrets of how to deal with necessary accommodation issues and how to advocate for myself. The frustration and anxiety I have had during past job interviews was gone after I took the ARP 568 course!” (Fall 2014 student)

For more information contact Dr. Caren Sax, csax@mail.sdsu.edu (also available via Open University)