Clear Credential Program Application

Requirements for all applicants to the Clear Credential Program:

[ ] Clear Credential Application—Please print legibly in ink on the application form. Provide all requested information, sign, and date the application.

[ ] Print out of your credential authorization with Document Number, Document Title, Issuance Date and Expiration Date.

[ ] CL 855 form verified by your employer (original signature is required). Please note: you must use the current form updated by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC) on 1/2011.

[ ] Official transcripts verifying proof of Bachelor’s degree and, if different, transcripts from the institution where the initial teaching credential was earned. Please note: if you are a graduate from SDSU (Bachelor’s or Credential) you do not need to provide official transcripts, a set of unofficial SDSU Webportal transcripts will be acceptable.

Please include your official transcripts with your clear credential application; do not send them in separately to our office.

Requirements for this program are set forth by San Diego State University, with approval from the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing. Information provided from other agencies may not be consistent with program requirements set forth by San Diego State University. All inquiries regarding program requirements and participation should be directed to the College of Education, School of Teacher Education at San Diego State University.

Specific Instructions for CL 855 Form:

Provide a CL 855 form with original signature signed by your employer verifying the unavailability of a Commission-Approved Induction Program at your place of employment. Please note: CL 855 form must be verified by a certified credential technician or Human Resources personnel designated to verify your employment status and permit you to be eligible to enroll in the Clear Credential Program. If you are unsure who is authorized to sign this form, please contact the certificated staff at your employer to find out who you should send this form to.
Please print clearly in ink
